Hymn #34

“Though I May Speak with Bravest Fire”

1. Though I may speak with bravest fire, and have the gift to all inspire, and have not love, my words are vain, as sounding brass, and hopeless gain.
2. Though I may give all I possess, and striving so my love profess, but not be given by love within, the profit soon turns strangely thin.
3. Come, Spirit, come, our hearts control, our spirits long to be made whole. Let inward love guide every deed; by this we worship, and are freed.

Kindling the Chalice Flame

Kathy Cossa, Pulpit Host

We light this chalice, symbol of our purpose to bring more love into the world.

We light this chalice, knowing our congregation as a church dispersed across communities, not bound by walls but connected through the web of life.

Hymn #123 “Spirit of Life”
Spirit of Life, come unto me. Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion. Blow in the wind, rise in the sea; move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice. Roots hold me close; wings set me free; Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Hymn #201 “Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!”

1. Glory, glory, hallelujah! Since I laid my burden down. Glory, glory, hallelujah! Since I laid my burden down.
2. Feel like shouting, “Hallelujah!” Since I laid my burden down. Feel like shouting, “Hallelujah!” Since I laid my burden down.
3. Feel like dancing, hallelujah! Since I laid my burden down. Feel like dancing, hallelujah! Since I laid my burden down.
4. Love is shining all around me since I laid my burden down. Love is shining all around me since I laid my burden down.

Closing Words “Blessings on Those Staying Home” By Linda Barnes
