Hymn

“Bend Toward Justice”

1. Bend toward justice, Grow toward health. See beyond the needs of self. Stretch to make best use of wealth for the cause of justice.
2. Bend toward justice: Though our deeds feel so meager meeting needs. Gardens grow not without weeds. Cultivate for justice.
3. Bend toward justice! Organize! Let nay sayers have their cries! Tough persistence wins the prize on the road to justice.

Kindling the Chalice Flame

Rebecca Brack

In a world filled with the darkness of ignorance, let us bring the light of reason

In a world filled with the darkness of despair, may we share the light of hope

In a world filled with the darkness of hate, let us shine the light of compassion and kindness.

- Douglas John Traversa

Hymn #123 “Spirit of Life”
Spirit of Life, come unto me. Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion. Blow in the wind, rise in the sea; move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice. Roots hold me close; wings set me free; Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Hymn #128 “For All That Is Our Life”

1. For all that is our life we sing our thanks and praise; for all life is a gift which we are called to use to build the common good and make our own days glad.
2. For needs which others serve, for services we give, for work and its rewards, for hours of rest and love; we come with praise and thanks for all that is our life.
3. For sorrow we must bear, for failures, pain, and loss, for each new thing we learn, for fearful hours that pass: we come with praise and thanks for all that is our life.
4. For all that is our life we sing our thanks and praise; for all life is a gift which we are called to use to build the common good and make our own days glad.
