Unitarian Universalist Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

UUFVB Mission Statement:

We, a caring liberal religious community, encourage spiritual growth, provide education to our community, and seek justice for all.

Kindling the Chalice Flame

Rev. Carole Yorke

We meet on Holy ground,
For that place is holy where we meet each other,
Where lives touch, where love moves, where hope stirs.
How strong is our need for one another.
Our Silent beckoning to our neighbors,
Our invitations to share life and death together,
Our welcome into the lives of those we meet,
And their welcome not our own.
We kindle our chalice,
This bowl of light, reflecting that Eternal Light which Shines always around and before us.

Sung Response

“Chalice Song”

Chalice, chalice burning bright, help remind us with your light of how we'd like to live each day, with love and truth helping lead the way.

April 4 – “Easter Doesn’t Happen All At Once...” -Rev. Scott W. Alexander

Rev. Alexander writes:

As we now slowly come out of the Covid pandemic (which has been more than a year-long “Good Friday” event of death and sorrow in the life of humanity) surely we are all aware that most often “Easter doesn’t happen all at once.” In every place I have ever lived, Winter usually turns to Spring in fits and starts over many weeks. And spiritually and emotionally speaking, when our lives are swept into darkness and difficulty, it often takes us a long time to recover our equilibrium and joy. Do be with us this Easter Sunday when we reflect on these complicated truths.
