Unitarian Universalist Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

UUFVB Mission Statement:

We, a caring liberal religious community, encourage spiritual growth, provide education to our community, and seek justice for all.

Hymn #123

"Spirit of Life"

Words and music: Carolyn McDade

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Scott writes:

I wanted a title for this "last" sermon as your settled minister that reflected the depth and breadth of my feelings for this congregation, and the word "Aloha" immediately came to mind. When I looked the word up on the internet, I found this:

We all know the word Aloha to be associated with the island of Hawaii. It is used today to say hello, goodbye and I love you. But is it also a way of life...it's interacting rightfully in the natural world sometimes known as "The Way of Aloha"...Aloha is being a part of all, and all being a part of me.
