We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

A Flame to Light Our Path
The silhouette of a person holding a lighter (with flame) against a red sky
Fire consumes, and casts a bright light.
May our chalice flame consume our regrets for the past,
Our fears about the future, and our worries about today.
May it light for us a path of joy and peace.

By Debra Burrell

Sung Response “Chalice”
Chalice, chalice burning bright, help remind us with your light of how we’d like to live each day, with love and truth helping lead the way.

Aug 15, 2021 – “Does God Have a Belly Button?”

Rev. Crystal Bujol

Does that bring up the question, “Did Eve have one, too?” Would answers to these questions help us understand how He learned to create a universe? Who taught him that skill? Would such a discussion add to the quality of a woman’s life? To a man’s life? To your life?
