Unitarian Universalist Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

UUFVB Mission Statement:

We, a caring liberal religious community, encourage spiritual growth, provide education to our community, and seek justice for all.

Sept 26, 2021 – Rev. Kaaren Anderson "What Would Jesus Do , Really?"

Rev. Kaaren writes:

On my way to the church each day, I pass an inordinate amount of signs that say: Jesus Loves Me or Jesus Saves. The Jesus I know, the historical, radical, Jewish agitator, isn't really a fun-loving guy. He's not what the signs proclaim. If he were to come back today, I think he'd be a little disappointed in us. Mainly because we humans aren't that good at building, keeping and restoring community at times. We lack a certain commitment to healing a broken world. So the question is, what Jesus are we called to embrace?
