#669 Psalm 1

Blessed are the man and the woman who have grown beyond their greed and have put an end to their hatred and no longer nourish illusions.

But they delight in the way things are and keep their hearts open , day and night.
They are like trees planted near flowing rivers, which bear fruit when they are ready.

Their leaves will not fall or wither.
Everything they do will succeed.

Next Sunday: July 24—Rev. Dr. John G. Brown III “The Mystery of Expectations”

Rev. Brown writes: We are not able to control the future, but when the future becomes the present, we do have some options. This sermon will explore the spiritual and psychological ways of addressing various expectations in our life. It has been said that if we do not learn from the past, it will keep repeating itself. What are some lessons that might be helpful for us?
