CARING CORNER

Each week we gather, with our own joys and sorrows, gifts and needs. Let us hold these individuals as part of our greater whole, with a full and generous heart.

Kathy Cossa: Kathy's mom passed away June 30th. Cards of condolence may be sent to her summer address, which can be found at the office volunteer desk.

To live in hearts that Love is not to die

Maggie Sabol: passed away Sunday July 12th following an illness. Condolences may be sent to her husband Bruce and family. Please call the office for Bruce's address.

There are those who have pastoral concerns who wish to remain anonymous but be assured our minister and the pastoral care team are aware of these people and keep in touch.

Next Sunday: July 31—Rev. Carole Yorke “What Has the Supreme Court Done? Life for Women after Roe v. Wade Bites the Dust”

Rev. Yorke writes: “I cannot remember being this angry back in the 70s when fighting for the passage of Roe v Wade. Not only because of the loss of abortion rights, which is bad enough. This will and has already begun to affect everyone’s privacy: abortion, interracial marriage, same sex marriage, consensual sex in your own home, contraception, parents educating their children...the potential scope is vast. I feel rage. Let’s explore turning rage into action.”
