CARING CORNER

Each week we gather, with our own joys and sorrows, gifts and needs. Let us hold these individuals as part of our greater whole, with a full and generous heart.

Please keep Emily Dreher our Music Director and her family in your thoughts and prayers, as she has lost her dad Tommy J. Dreher who died last Friday, July 29th. He spent his life enjoying sports and teaching P.E. in his state of Ohio. He loved fishing, bowling, dogs, and grandson Gabriel. For condolences of love and healing to be sent to Emily and her family, please contact the office for the mailing address.

Bob Schmidt: suffered a stroke recently and is currently home receiving OT & PT. Bob is grateful for your love and support. Cards only at this time, please no visits or calls.

There are those who have pastoral concerns who wish to remain anonymous but be assured our minister and the pastoral care team are aware of these people and keep in touch.

Hymn #1	“May Nothing Evil Cross This Door” vs. 1,2,3 Words by Louis Untermeyer Music by Robert N. Quaille
Kindling the Chalice Flame		Barbara Dunst
	Light is our gateway, it is the light of creation, When we kindle lights we remember the light that marked the beginning of the universe, the first flashes of lightning that filled the sky when the people of Israel stood at Mt. Sinai, and the holy sparks of compassion, kindness and love that will be united when we find redemption. As our communities come together, as we take this time to reflect, study and learn together, let us consider the ways that we seek out that light, allowing it to shine into a better world.

Next Sunday: August 14th -Rev. Charles McNatt “I Can’t Understand My Brother,” which is true.

Rev. McNatt writes: He’s a conservative with some real negative ideas, who also happens to be a person who most people really like, including me. I can’t talk politics with him, although he tries to bait me. It’s about the problem of trying to understand not just the ‘other side,’ but all those we can’t understand.
